

Alberto Buffa

-  +39 011 5112336
-  alberto.buffa@pavesioassociati.it
-  Torino, Corso Vittorio Emanuele II, 68

Alberto Buffa joined Pavesio e Associati with Negri-Clementi in September 2020.

Alberto earned his J.D. degree magna cum laude and recommendation for publication from the University of Turin in July 2020, with a final dissertation in comparative contract law and international commercial law.

In 2018, Alberto spent a semester abroad at Maastricht University (the Netherlands), where he attended courses on European and international business law, and he participated in the 9th Vis Moot School Switzerland on international commercial law and international commercial arbitration held by the University of Zurich (Switzerland).

In 2019, he took part in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot on international commercial law and he coached the team from the University of Turin in the said competition in the years 2020, 2021 e 2022.

In summer 2020, he partook in the 8th Law Schools League Summer School (LSGS) on international trade and investment law organized by the Higher School of Economics (Russia).

He is a member of the Turin Bar.