Federico Camurati joined Pavesio e Associati with Negri-Clementi in April 2017.

He assists clients in civil and commercial litigation and arbitration, both Italian and foreign.

During 2019 and 2020, Federico worked with the General Affairs, Sales and Distribution Department of FCA Italy S.p.A. on secondment from Pavesio e Associati with Negri-Clementi. From this experience, he gained expertise in drafting and reviewing distribution and supply agreements and specific knowledge of national and EU law in the automotive sector.

Federico earned his J.D. degree from the University of Turin in 2016.

He studied at the Center for Transnational Legal Studies in London, in 2014 participated in the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition as a team member, and then, in 2015, as a coach of the team of the University of Turin and in 2019 and 2020 as an international judge in Brussels.

In 2015 he was Vice-Secretary of the university section (MSOI) of the Italian Society for International Organization in Turin, and in 2016 he did an internship in London at the International Maritime Organization.

He is a member of the Turin Bar.
