Ester Candido is an Art Consultant for Pavesio e Associati with Negri-Clementi since February 2024.

Specialized in History of Art and Art Economics with skills and an expertise in social media management, digital communications and marketing, she provides consulting services in the fine arts and collecting sectors, guiding clients in the Markets of Ancient, Modern and Contemporary Art.

After gaining initial experience at Pavesio e Associati with Negri-Clementi between 2021 and 2022, she worked at BPER Banca Private Cesare Ponti in the context of contemporary art exhibitions, organized by La Galleria BPER Banca and at Cambi Auction House as Department Assistant and Sales & Customer Services Assistant. Thanks to a solid collaboration relationship, in 2024 she returned to be a permanent part of the Law Firm's Art Team. Ester regularly writes for digital magazines specialized in art history and art economics with a focus on corporate art and employees wellbeing. Furthermore, she contributes to the organization and management of cultural events.

In 2020 she obtained a Bachelor's Degree in History of Art from the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart in Milan. Later on, in 2023 she successfully finalized her upper-level education with a Master's Degree in Economics and Management of Arts at the same university, discussing a thesis about Corporate Social Responsibility, art collecting and art projects in the corporate field and HR Management. While she was a student, she honed her skills in Project Management as a member of the national Culturit network, where she played the role of Art Director for the Communication Team and advised multiples institutions and companies such as Yet Art Agency, BAM – Biblioteca degli Alberi di Milano and Arese-Borremerio Palace in Cesano Maderno.
