

Agnieszka Gasiorowska

+39 011 5112336

agnieszka.gasiorowska@pavesioassociati.it

Torino, Corso Vittorio Emanuele II, 68

Agnieszka Gasiorowska is an Of Counsel to Pavesio Studio Legale since 2008. She gained her professional experience collaborating with international law firms White&Case, Allen&Overy and Lovells in Warsaw and, in the period 2004–2007, with RP Legal (previously Hammonds Rossotto) in Turin.

Agnieszka practices commercial, corporate and banking law; she has particular experience in cross-border commercial transactions and international M&A and joint venture transactions.

She assisted a number of primary Polish, German and Austrian banks in relation to banking transactions with Polish and Italian borrowers. She worked for one year as a legal secondee to one of the primary US banks in Warsaw. In last years she gained a particular know-how in assisting clients in their direct investments in Asia and East European countries.

Agnieszka Gasiorowska graduated from the University of Warsaw in 1994 and completed English Law course organised by British Centre for English and European Studies and the Cambridge University in 1995. In 2004 Agnieszka gained her Italian master degree from the University of Turin (it. Master per Giuristi d'Impresa).

Admitted to Warsaw Bar (Radca Prawny) since 1997 and to Turin Bar (Avvocato Stabilito) since 2004.