

Camilla Cravetto

+39 011 5112312

camilla.cravetto@pavesioassociati.it

Torino, Corso Vittorio Emanuele II, 68

Camilla Cravetto is Senior Associate and head of 231 Compliance team of Pavesio Studio Legale.

Her experience is mainly focused on corporate criminal liability (D.Lgs. 231/2001), anticorruption and whistleblowing, in health and safety and environmental law and white collar crimes prevention and corporate law, advising domestic and international clients operating in automotive, construction and chemical fields.

She also has specific expertise in following comprehensive data protection projects, with specific attention to compliance coordination within a group and transfer of personal data to third countries.

She is part of the multidisciplinary “ESG group” to support companies in all phases of their path to sustainable development, including the achievement of the ESG goals.

She is currently member of the supervisory body (OdV) of some entities and leading national and multinational companies with significant operating offices in Italy, among which: Fondazione CRT, CLN S.p.A, Fininc S.p.A., Eataly S.p.A., Danfoss S.r.l., ArcelorMittal CLN Distribuzione Italia S.r.l, Farmaceutici Procemsa S.p.A.

Camilla Cravetto began her legal career in 2014 at Studio Legale Ferreri up to 2017. She also worked at Fiat Chrysler Automobiles - FCA Italy S.p.A, in the Legal Department, supporting Italy Sales Department (2019) and at Eni S.p.A. in the Anticorruption Legal Unit of the Legal Affairs Department (2013). She did her legal traineeship in a criminal law firm (Studio Avvocato Chiusano).

Camilla Cravetto gained her J.D. degree in 2011 from the University of Turin, where she graduated magna cum laude and honorable mention and she won a prize in memory of Maurizio Laudi. She gained a Certificate in Transnational Legal Studies at the Center for Transnational Legal Studies of London and she completed the Erasmus Program at the University of Liège – Faculty of Law and Political Sciences

She has authored a number of articles and given several lectures on corporate criminal liability, anticorruption, whistleblowing, sustainability, criminal law, anti-money laundering regulation.

She is a member of the Turin Bar.

She speaks English and French for professional use.