Francesca Branca joined Pavesio Studio Legale in February 2023.

Francesca's practice focuses on corporate and commercial law, advising clients in drafting corporate documentation and commercial contracts, both national and international, and providing assistance in M&A transactions and in cross-border financing transactions.

She obtained her J.D. degree cum Laude from the University of Turin in 2016.

Francesca did her legal traineeship at the Parigi-Sponga-Bacin law firm, in Turin, dealing mainly with civil and commercial law.

Between 2018 and 2022, Francesca attended the PhD course in "Rights and Institutions", at the University of Turin, dealing in particular with topics related to administrative law, the law of the European Union and law applied to new technologies, with studies of artificial intelligence and machine learning applied to the management of public goods. She graduated with honours in May 2022.

In 2022 she attended a traineeship in Munich, at the law firm Noerr.

She is a member of the Turin Bar.
